Community Outreach

Driven by ownership, the Mets follow the philosophy of "Doing Well While Doing Good" to give back to the community through multiple platforms and initiatives throughout the year in and around New York. Ownership, players, executives and front-office staff leverage the appeal of the Mets to positively impact organizations and individuals in our hometown by addressing social, cultural and educational needs. The Mets work together with the community, our sponsors and partners on a variety of programs involving schools, libraries, hospitals, museums and youth baseball leagues.

THE NEW YORK METS FOUNDATION

The New York Mets Foundation funds and promotes a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes. Founded in 1963, it continues its mission to invest in the future of our community, and to provide assistance to organizations that benefit children and others in need. A registered 501© 3 charity, the Mets Foundation takes no portion of the funds raised to offset internal costs. The Mets pay 100% of the Foundation's overhead to ensure that the entirety of a donation is directed toward helping others.

TeamMets

TeamMets is a community volunteerism initiative that uses the interest in the Mets and their players to encourage fans to join the team in helping others. Members of the Mets front office donate their time to events during the year, working with organizations including City Harvest, Urban Dove and the Everybody Wins! Foundation. To spread the word, the Mets produced a series of public service announcements that promoted NYC Service, Mayor Bloomberg's volunteer initiative which positions New York City as the easiest place in the world to volunteer.

FUNDRAISING

TEAMMATES IN THE COMMUNITY

The New York Mets Foundation partners with the individual causes and foundations of Mets players at the annual Mets Foundation Teammates in the Community fundraiser, which has raised over $1.6 million over the past three years.

WELCOME HOME DINNER

The Mets hold their annual Welcome Home Dinner the night of Opening Day to celebrate the return of the team to New York for another baseball season. The players, manager, coaches and the rest of the organization attend the event that features a fundraising auction, raffle and autograph session. This year's gala, scheduled for April 5 at the Hilton New York, will benefit the Katz Women's Hospital and Women's Health Institute/North Shore-LIJ Health System and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

A NIGHT TO BELIEVE

The Mets hosted their seventh Annual Night to Believe fundraiser in the Big Apple section of Citi Field to benefit Project ALS, a non-profit organization renowned for their outstanding leadership in finding and funding treatments and a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease. Tom Seaver, John Franco, Rusty Staub and Mr. Met were part of a pre-game reception in celebration of the more than $200,000 raised in 2009 and $1.25 million over the past seven years for Project ALS.

STARLIGHT NIGHT AT CITI FIELD

The Mets have partnered with ARAMARK the past seven years to raise $850,000 for the Starlight Children's Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children who suffer from critical, chronic and life-threatening illnesses. At the 2009 event, the Mets donated tickets and ARAMARK provided catering for 850 people in the Big Apple section of Citi Field. The Mets wives launched their first Mystery Baseballs Fundraiser which added another $7,200 to the evening. Setting up shop beyond centerfield in front of the Verizon Studio, they sold grab bags that contained a baseball autographed by a Mets player.

EDUCATION

CITI FIELD KIDS

Citi Field Kids is an educational and motivational program for New York City school students conducted before games at Citi Field. The community-based initiative, developed by Citi in collaboration with the Jackie Robinson Foundation, United Neighborhood Houses, and the Mets, seeks to positively impact middle and high school students through the nine values and ideals of Jackie Robinson. The program, which launched on Jackie Robinson Day April 15, 2009, begins with a pre-game private tour of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda led by a Jackie Robinson Foundation Scholar, followed by guest speakers from the Mets and Citi and an afternoon of Mets baseball.

SCHOOL IS AMAZING

School is Amazing, sponsored by health insurer EmblemHealth and supported by the New York City Department of Education, reinforces the benefits of education and attendance for middle school students. Mets players visit schools selected by the DOE as a reward for academic excellence or improvement in their school work. Students have the opportunity to perform for the players and express what they most enjoy about school.

MATH EDUCATION THROUGH SPORTS

In 2009, the Mets and Citi introduced "Math Education Through Sports" (M.E.T.S.), an educational program for seventh graders in Queens that serves as both a learning tool and entertaining exercise for students and teachers. M.E.T.S. workbooks were sent to all public schools in Queens that include seventh graders. The Mets and Citi were assisted by NYC's Department of Education and I.S. 185 in Flushing to ensure that the content of the program correlated directly to the New York State Learning Standard for Mathematics.

POWER LUNCH

Since 2000, Mets employees have visited P.S. 92 in Corona, Queens to read books and share lunch with the same fourth or fifth grader every week from November through May. The school visits are coordinated by the Everybody Wins! Foundation, a leading non-profit literacy and mentoring organization that pairs adult volunteers with children in elementary schools for weekly reading aloud and conversation.

JACKIE ROBINSON FOUNDATION

The Mets and Citi, as part of their landmark partnership, have built on the team's longstanding relationship with the Jackie Robinson Foundation to support its education and leadership development program. The Foundation provides extensive mentoring and scholarships for college students who exemplify Jackie's humanitarian ideals and standard of excellence. The Mets established an endowed scholarship with the Foundation in 1996, which is created in perpetuity, to assist promising students in reaching their goals through a college education.

STUDENT ATHLETE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE SERIES

The Mets/Sharp Electronics Student Athlete Leadership Conference Series trains more than 1,200 student-athletes from 35 high schools on Long Island to deliver drug and alcohol abuse prevention programming to grade school children. The workshops prepare the Student Athlete Leaders for their ongoing visits with fifth graders in their school districts to promote positive activities such as sports while also educating students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM OF NYC PUBLIC LIBRARIES

The Mets, longtime supporters of the Queens Library, New York Public Library and Brooklyn Public Library, encourage children throughout New York City to join the Summer Reading Program at their local library. The Mets, in partnership with Citi, tape public service announcements, produce bookmarks, arrange player appearances and provide tickets to games at Citi Field as incentives.

WEATHER EDUCATION DAY

The Mets and their broadcast television partner PIX 11 team up each spring to provide an educational and entertaining field trip for students prior to a game at Citi Field. PIX 11 weather experts, Mr. G and Linda Church, join Mets players for the pre-game event followed by an afternoon of Mets baseball.

HELPING HANDS

HOLIDAY PARTY

The Acela Club became the North Pole as the Mets hosted their annual Holiday Party for Kids at Citi Field for the first time with children from all five boroughs of New York City. Jeff Francoeur played Santa and his elves, Jose Reyes, Jonathon Niese, Angel Pagan, and Bobby Parnell, helped hand out presents that had been selected and wrapped by Mets employees.

BLOOD DRIVE

The Mets and their longtime partners at the New York Blood Center collected a record-breaking 386 pints of blood at Citi Field's inaugural blood drive at the Caesars Club last July. The annual off-season blood drive took place January 27, and broke another record with 424 pints of blood.

COAT DRIVE

The Mets continued their support of the New York Cares Annual Coat Drive in 2009 as the Mets Holiday "Warm Up" Coat Drive debuted at Citi Field. Jeff Francoeur, Jose Reyes, Jonathon Niese, Angel Pagan and Bobby Parnell helped volunteers collect a record-breaking 1,568 coats. Each donor received two tickets to a game at Citi Field.

KIDS DAY AT CITI FIELD

Once a year, the Mets grounds crew brings in reinforcements to assist them in getting the field in tiptop shape. The Mets and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society arranged their first "Kids Day at Citi Field" for 40 children and their families, having held a similar event at Shea Stadium for many years. The groundskeepers taught the children how to drag the infield, put the bases in place, and take a home run trot. After a lunch break, Mets employees served as hosts of the many activities in the 2K Sports FanFest.

YOUTH BASEBALL

GREATER NEW YORK SANDLOT ATHLETIC ALLIANCE

The Mets provide financial support to the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance (GNYSAA) for citywide tournaments and programs including the organization's annual All-Star Games for 15-16 and 17-18 year-old players at MCU Park, home of the Brooklyn Cyclones. The GNYSAA serves as an umbrella organization to several metropolitan amateur baseball organizations representing 20,000 young people and 1,100 teams each year.

HARLEM RBI

Since Harlem RBI named Mets centerfielder Carlos Beltran "Honorary Commissioner" in 2006, he has donated more than $220,000 to the program that provides year-round academic, enrichment and sports programs to children ages 7 to 18. Carlos donates $500 for every RBI he collects and since 2007, the Mets Foundation has matched that pledge, adding another $136,000 to the cause. Carlos also hosts a clinic for Harlem RBI's REAL Kids program participants at Citi Field and makes an annual appearance at their "Field of Dreams" on 101st Street in Harlem.

YMCA JR. METS

The Mets Foundation sponsors the YMCA Jr. Mets, a comprehensive youth baseball program that emphasizes athletic and social skills as well as teaching how to improve health and wellness. The YMCA Jr. Mets program is an eight-week initiative that has introduced thousands of young people to baseball since its inception in 2001. The Mets provide members with caps and arrange for a player and coach to lead a baseball clinic at a YMCA site and at Citi Field.

STRIKING OUT HUNGER

CITY HARVEST

The Mets support City Harvest in its effort to feed the hungry in New York City by collecting excess food and delivering it to more than 600 community food programs. Mets and Citi employees repacked 25,000 pounds of apples on Mets Plaza at Citi Field, and Mets outfielder Angel Pagan helped Goya and City Harvest deliver 5,000 pounds to a Long Island City food pantry.

CITYMEALS-ON-WHEELS

Former Met John Franco delivered meals to homebound elderly in Brooklyn, where the Mets all-time saves leader was born and raised, as part of the Citymeals-on-Wheels program that relies on more than 1,500 volunteers every year.

ISLAND HARVEST

For six years the Mets have hosted a fundraiser for Island Harvest, with last year's event raising $30,000 to boost the total to $129,000. Island Harvest distributes surplus food to 500 community food programs, making it Long Island's largest hunger relief organization.

ROCK & WRAP IT UP!

After each game at Citi Field in 2009, the Mets and ARAMARK helped Rock & Wrap It Up! collect more than 31,000 pounds of unsold food for delivery to area food kitchens to help feed the hungry. The Mets are expanding their partnership with Rock & Wrap It Up! in 2010 by launching the Snack Wrap! program that encourages students in Long Island schools to donate unopened snacks to the needy.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL PARTNERSHIPS

WELCOME BACK VETERANS

Mets owner Fred Wilpon and private citizens created Welcome Back Veterans, a national public awareness and fundraising initiative that addresses the mental health and employment needs of America's returning war veterans and their families. Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Advanced Media and the McCormick Foundation support the program, which provides returning veterans the quality medical treatment and long-term employment assistance they deserve to restart their lives and care for their families. The Mets honor a "Veteran of the Game" at each home game at Citi Field to build awareness of Welcome Back Veterans.

MAJOR LEAGUE WHEELCHAIR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

The New York Mets hosted their ninth annual Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament and the first at Citi Field in partnership with the United Spinal Association, New York City's Parks Department, Major League Baseball and the Wheelchair Sports Federation. This annual tournament, which is open to all teams that are affiliated with a major league franchise, has included the United Spinal Mets, Magee Phillies, Tampa Bay Rays, RIC Cubs, Vaughn White Sox, NEPVA Red Sox, Courage Rolling Twins and Oakland A's.

PITCH, HIT & RUN

Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit and Run - the official skills competition of Major League Baseball - is a free grass roots program which encourages youth participation and emphasizes the fun of baseball. The competitor's ability to hit, run, field and throw is tested at regional trials and compared with others in his or her age group across the United States to qualify for the National Finals held during Major League Baseball's All-Star Game. The Mets host an on-field regional competition at Citi Field and recognize the local winners in a pre-game ceremony.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Chevy, recognizes the player in Major League Baseball who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. In September, a nominee from each of the 30 MLB teams is announced on Roberto Clemente Day, which was established by MLB in 2002 to pay homage to the Hall of Famer's legacy. The Mets 2009 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award was Johan Santana.

EQUIPMENT COLLECTION DRIVE

To support the growth of youth baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) has teamed up with MLB clubs to organize equipment collection drives across the United States. The Mets have collected over 1,000 bats, gloves, balls and catcher's gear the past three seasons to benefit The Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance, which distributes the donations to area youth baseball organizations. The BTF also presents a grant of $5,000 to go toward the purchase of additional equipment.

MOTHER'S DAY – SUSAN G. KOMEN FOR THE CURE

Major League Baseball and its 30 clubs join Susan G. Komen for the Cure each year for "Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer," a program that incorporates numerous facets of the game on and off the field to generate awareness about breast cancer and raise funds to help fight the disease. Mother's Day games feature special in-park programs and a 'pink theme' throughout, including many players using pink bats.

FATHER'S DAY – PROSTATE CANCER FOUNDATION

Major League Baseball teams up with the Prostate Cancer Foundation to increase awareness and early detection of prostate cancer on Father's Day. On-field personnel wear blue wristbands, eye glare and ribbon uniform decals, while blue ribbon logos appear on bases, commemorative home plates and line-up cards. A "Home Run Challenge" fundraising component is implemented during select MLB games to benefit the Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Meet the Mets Theme Song

BY RUTH ROBERTS & BILL KATZ (1962)

Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets, of New York town.

Oh, the butcher and the baker and the people on the streets,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
Oh, they're hollerin' and cheerin' and they're jumpin' in their seats,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
All the fans are true to the orange and blue,
So hurry up and come on down -
'cause we've got ourselves a ball club,
The Mets of New York town!

Give 'em a yell! Give 'em a hand!
And let 'em know you're rootin' in the stands!
Come on and Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets,
Of New York town,
Of New York town!!!!!

Casey's Last Game

On Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1965, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets at Shea, 5-1...The game was the last in the distinguished career of manager Casey Stengel...Stengel was forced into retirement by a broken hip he would suffer later that night...Here are some details of the game: Jim Bunning struck out 12, tossing a two-hitter for the Phillies...Johnny Lewis had both Met hits, including a solo home run in the fourth that provided New York's only run...Wes Covington went 3-3 with a double, a home run, and three RBI to lead the Phils...Richie Allen added three hits for Philadelphia and Dick Stuart cracked a home run.

Two Wins, One Day

Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson, Willard Hunter and Jesse Orosco—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds, 3-2 and 8-7, with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of hitless relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins, 7-6 and 1-0. John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea.

Perfect Innings

Nolan Ryan and David Cone are the only pitchers in Mets history to strike out the side on nine pitches. Ryan did it in the third inning on April 19, 1968 vs. Los Angeles (Claude Osteen, Wes Parker and Zoilo Versalles). Cone did it in the fifth inning, August 30, 1991 at Cincinnati (Herm Winningham, Randy Myers and Mariano Duncan).

Long Scoreless Streaks

The club record for consecutive shutout innings is 42, held by the 1969 World Champions from September 23-28 as they were gearing up for the playoffs... Included in that streak were six shutout frames vs. St. Louis on the 23rd, a complete game victory by Gary Gentry over the Cards on the 24th, complete game wins by Jerry Koosman and Tom Seaver at Philadelphia on the 26th and 27th and a 2-0 victory over the Phillies on the 28th...Just a few weeks earlier, the same Mets pitching staff had tossed 36 straight shutout innings from September 10-13...The longest the Mets have ever been held scoreless is 39 innings, from September 11-September 15, 1963.

- Recorded 13 strikeouts, his most as a member of the Mets, on April 12th at Florida...The 13 strikeouts were the third-most of his career.
- After his fourth start, had a 0.70 ERA and 37 strikeouts...Before 2009, only two pitchers had an ERA under 0.75 and 36 or more strikeouts in their first four starts of a season: Fernando Valenzuela for the 1981 Dodgers (0.25 ERA, 36 strikeouts) and Tom Cheney for the 1963 Senators (0.25 ERA, 38 strikeouts)...Zack Greinke (0.00 ERA and 36 strikeouts) also accomplished the feat.

- Shut out the Phillies on May 6th for 7.0 innings to stretch his streak of starts allowing two runs or less to a career-best 12.
- His 0.78 ERA through seven starts was the lowest in franchise history to begin a season...Frank Viola had a 0.87 ERA in 1990...Santana became the 14th pitcher since 1913 (the first season that earned runs officially were tracked in both leagues) to post an ERA below 0.80 through his first seven starts of the season, including Zack Greinke (0.51) in 2009...Became the first NL pitcher to do it since Fernando Valenzuela (0.29) in 1981...Is only the third of those 14 pitchers to lose at least two of his first seven starts...The others were Dutch Leonard (4-2, 0.42) for the Red Sox in 1914 and Dana Fillingim (5-2, 0.29) for the 1918 Boston Braves.
- The Mets defeated the Phillies 1-0 on May 6th, with Santana earning the win and Francisco Rodriguez collecting the save...It was the second time that Santana won a 1-0 game that Rodriguez saved (April 18th vs. Milwaukee)...It was the first time in major league history that teammates posted the win and the save in a pair of 1-0 games before the end of May.

- The six runs allowed on May 16th at San Francisco snapped his streak of starts with two runs or less at 13...That stretch was the longest ever fashioned by a current major leaguer... Edinson Volquez had a string of 12 games in 2008...Santana was 9-2 with a 1.57 ERA (17 earned runs/97.1 innings pitched) and 114 strikeouts in this span.
- Surrendered four home runs on June 9th at home to Philadelphia to tie his career-high...The lefthander had allowed that many once before on July 23, 2007 at Toronto while with Minnesota...He also surrendered consecutive home runs to Ryan Howard and Raul Ibanez in the fourth, the first time he allowed back-to-back home runs since July 17, 2008 at Cincinnati (Adam Dunn and Juan Encarnacion)...Also recorded his first RBI since July 27, 2008 with a run-scoring double in the sixth inning of that game, a 6-5 win over Philadelphia.

- On July 24th, Michael Bourn stole the only base against the lefthander in 2009 when, in the fourth inning, the Houston outfielder broke for second and made it safely after Santana threw to first...It was only the third stolen base attempt against him all season...None came on a pitch delivered to home plate.
- Among pitchers who made at least 25 starts, he was second in the league with just one stolen base allowed...St. Louis' Joel Pineiro did not allow any stolen bases.
- Was named to his fourth All-Star Game, first while in the National League...Did not appear in the American League's 4-3 win.
- Went 7.0 scoreless innings during a 7-0 win in the first game of a doubleheader on July 30th against Colorado...It was Santana's seventh start of the season where he went at least 6.0 innings and did not allow an earned run..Finished two behind the major league leader, Felix Hernandez, in such starts, despite going to the mound nine fewer times.
- From July 11th through the first inning on July 24th, had a 15.0-inning scoreless streak.
- In the start on July 24th at Houston, he went on to tie his career high with 12 hits allowed, set originally on May 22, 2008 at Atlanta...It was just the eighth time in his career he allowed double-digit hits.
- In his last nine games (July 5th-August 20th), pitched into the seventh inning in every turn, going a season-high 8.0 innings in consecutive starts on August 4th vs. St. Louis and August 9th at San Diego.
- Set his career high with two RBI on August 4th against the Cardinals...His two-run double off Joel Pineiro was also his second double to the season.
- On August 9th at San Diego, tied his career-high with two hits, done four times...Also drew a walk to reach base in three different at-bats, doing so for just the second time in his career...He had two doubles and a walk on April 23, 2008 at Washington...Became the first pitcher in any game in 2009 to collect two hits, a walk, an RBI and score a run.
- With just three walks in four August starts, Santana tied for the fewest bases-on-balls in the month among all major league pitchers with at least 29.0 innings in August.
- Is 18-7 with a 2.63 ERA in 47 games, 34 starts, during the month of September...Has allowed 193 hits, 78 runs, 73 earned, with 72 walks and 271 strikeouts in 250.0 innings...In his last 19 September starts, dating back to September 17, 2005, he is 10-4 with a 2.53 ERA.

Dominican Baseball Academy

The New York Mets Dominican Baseball Academy opened in the summer of 2008 and provides the Mets a permanent presence in the Dominican Republic. Built on over 37 acres of land, the academy features three full fields (including a replica Citi Field), one half-field, four large batting tunnels, a spacious weight room, a clubhouse and training room facilities.

Players and coaches live in a modern dormitory style building that can house up to 64 permanent players, 20 tryout players, along with coaches. There are also two classrooms and a computer lab that is utilized to hold high school level courses and English classes so that players have access to education while living at the complex.

To entertain players in their time between that ball field and the classroom, there are lounges equipped with televisions, video games, ping-pong tables and pool tables. In addition to these activities the complex also is a home to a Little League field, a driving range, tennis courts and a swimming pool. In the words of General Manager Omar Minaya, "This state-of-the-art training academy will be integral to attracting, signing, and fostering the development of the best talent in the Dominican Republic and Latin America."

Nelson Figueroa

On August 5, 2009 vs. St. Louis, Nelson Figueroa became the first relief pitcher to earn a victory, pitch at least 4.0 innings without allowing a run, and hit a triple in the same game since May 12, 1972, when Jim Colborn pitched 7.0 scoreless innings, tripled in the 19th inning and earned the win in a 22-inning Brewers victory at Minnesota.

Figueroa hurled a bullpen season-high 4.1 innings and tripled in the second inning...His triple, the first of his career, drove in two runs, equaling a career-high...He also had two RBI on April 30, 2002 with Milwaukee vs. Atlanta.

HISTORY

2010 NEW YORK Mets MEDIA GUIDE

2000 Mets - 10 Years Later

The words and phrases were different but the thoughts were the same. In near unanimity, the members of the 2000 New York Mets had an easy explanation of why the team qualified for the organization's first World Series in 14 years.

"We were a team devoid of ego," said then Mets Manager Bobby Valentine, who guided his club to a 94-68 record and a Wild Card berth. The club finished just one game behind the Atlanta Braves in the National League East.

"We just believed in one another," continued Valentine. "Mike (Piazza) was really our lone superstar. Everyone on the club had a role and they knew they were important to the success of the team. It was a very caring group of guys."

Piazza called the 2000 Mets the true definition of the word team.

"Everyone embraced their jobs," said Piazza. "There was no negativity about anything that went on. If a guy sat for a few days, he didn't worry because he knew he would get back in there soon and do something positive."

Pitcher Al Leiter, who was 16-8 with a 3.20 ERA that season, had a similar view.

"Basically we had fun," he said. "We enjoyed the game and we enjoyed each other's company. We were a family. There were no cliques. When we would go to a city, Johnny Franco, who was the social secretary, would get everyone together and we would usually have 15-20 guys out eating dinner together."

Franco, who ceded his closer's role to Armando Benitez that season, had this take on his team's road to the championship.

"It was fun watching a different guy come through every night," said Franco. "When Derek Bell got hurt, Timo (Perez) stepped in. Our bullpen was deep with Turk (Wendell), Cookie (Dennis Cook) and myself to go with Armando. I had never been on a club that had such chemistry."

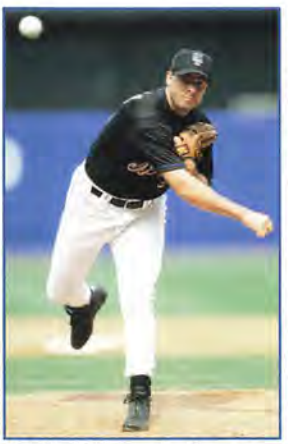
Outfielder Benny Agbayani, who was in his first full season in the major leagues, believes that chemistry started when the club opened the 2000 season with a two-game series against the Cubs in Japan. It was the first time in major league history that regular season games were played outside of North America.

Benny Agbayani greeted by his teammates at home plate.

It was Agbayani's grand slam in the 11th inning of the second contest that gave the Mets a 5-1 victory at the Tokyo Dome.

"We had those long flights together and I think that really drew us closer," Agbayani recalled. "No team had ever done that before and I think that experience helped get the season off to a good start. It was like we were part of history.

"We just had a great locker room," he went on to say. "I was a young kid and I was treated like a veteran. Bobby was a great manager because he never let anyone sit too long. He made sure that each guy had a chance to make a contribution."



Turk Wendell appeared in 77 contests in 2000.

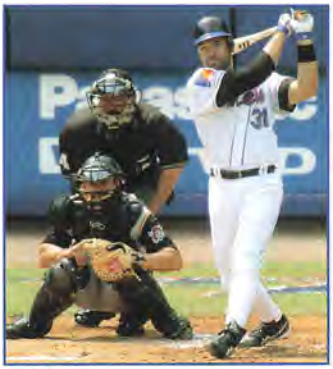
One of those key contributors was the rubber-armed Wendell, who won eight games and appeared in 77 contests for the 2000 Mets.

"No one wanted to be a hero," said Wendell. "All any of us wanted to do was win, and we usually found a different way every night."

Just how balanced were the 2000 Mets? Seven different players reached double figures in home runs: Piazza (38), Edgardo Alfonzo (25), Robin Ventura (24), Todd Zeile (22), Bell (18), Jay Payton (17) and Agbayani (15).

In addition, five different pitchers all reached double figures in victories: Leiter (16-8), Mike Hampton (15-10), Bobby Jones (11-6), Rick Reed (11-5) and Glendon Rusch (11-11).

Before the playoffs began that season, there would be one memorable game that captured the grit and determination of the 2000 club. The Mets trailed the Braves, 8-1, going into the bottom of the eighth inning on June 30th at home. New York had already scored seven runs to tie the game at 8-8 when Piazza came to the plate with Bell on second and Alfonzo on first. He proceeded to blast a three-run, laser-like home run to leftfield against Terry Mulholland to give his club an improbable 11-8 victory.



Mike Piazza.

"I have been fortunate to hit a lot of important home runs in my career," recalled Piazza. "But that one against the Braves was something special. It was a like a World Series atmosphere in June. Shea was going crazy and because we were playing the Braves. It made the situation even more intense, it's a night I never will forget."

Valentine's club won eight of its last nine games to finish the season with 94 victories.

The playoffs began on an inauspicious note for the Mets, as Hampton dropped a 5-1 decision to Livan Hernandez and the Giants in Game One of the Division Series in San Francisco.

Leiter allowed two runs and five hits through 8.0 innings of Game Two but J.T. Snow's three-run home run against Benitez in the bottom of the ninth inning tied the game at 4-4 and sent the contest into extra innings.

"If we go down 0-2, we probably never make it to the World Series," remembered Leiter. "It was probably a hole we couldn't dig ourselves out of."

But in the 10th inning, Darryl Hamilton doubled and came home on a single by Payton. Franco saved the game by striking out Barry Bonds to end the game.

John Franco saved Game Two of the Division Series by striking out Barry Bonds.

"It was on a 3-2 pitch, a pitch I never will forget," said Franco. "Barry could take anybody deep. I just knew inside we couldn't blow that game again."

The Mets won Game Three at Shea but it took five hours and 22 minutes and 13 innings. Agbayani's long home run to leftfield with one out against Aaron Fultz was the game winner.

"People still talk to me about that home run," said Agbayani, who was 0-5 in the game prior to the home run. "I'm from Hawaii and the Giants are still popular there. It's a memory I can pass on to my grandkids."

Jones took center stage the next day and pitched the Mets into the League Championship Series against the Cardinals. In one of the finest performances in postseason history, he hurled a 4-0, one-hit shutout with two walks. He allowed three baserunners in the game, all in the fifth inning, a double by Jeff Kent and walks to Snow and catcher Doug Mirabelli. were all the Giants could muster.

Bobby Jones threw a one-hitter to clinch the Division Series.

"It was a day when everything just fell into place for me," explained Jones. "I had command of all my pitches. Warming up in the bullpen, I knew I would pitch well, but not that well. I never thought I would pitch a one-hitter on a stage like that."

After Jones' big game, Ventura was confident the Mets would advance to the World Series.

"Bobby's game really jump-started us," said Robin. "We had a couple of tough games with the Giants and his performance gave us the confidence that we could get to the Series."

Jones is only one of five pitchers in postseason history to pitch a shutout allowing one or fewer hits. The others are Claude Passeau, Don Larsen, Jim Lonborg and Roger Clemens.

The Mets went on to turn back the Cardinals, four games to one, to advance to the club's third World Series.

The Most Valuable Player in the League Championship Series was Hampton, who won Game One with 7.0 innings and captured the clincher with a complete-game, 7-0, three-hit shutout.

Mike Hampton was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player.

"The night we beat St. Louis to go the World Series is still the highlight of my career," said Hampton. "I can still recall jumping into Mike Piazza's arms on the mound. We circled the field waving to the fans. It was special."

That night is also an evening Zeile will long remember. He stroked a three-run double in the fourth inning against Pat Hentgen to give the Mets a 6-0 lead.

"The game was kind of full circle for me," said Zeile. "I came up with the Cardinals and now we were going to beat them to get to the World Series. Standing on second base after the hit, I could feel the stadium rocking. It was something."

Of course, the season didn't end happily as the Mets lost to the Yankees in five games in the first ever Subway Series between the two teams, and the city's first since 1956.

"Sure we would have liked to win the Series," said Valentine. "But losing to the Yankees couldn't diminish what we accomplished that year. We just had a tremendous group of guys and it was a pleasure for me to manage them."

Mets Retired Numbers

Casey Stengel's #37 was officially retired on September 2, 1965 in a small, private ceremony at Shea Stadium. Stengel was named the Mets first manager on September 29, 1961 and despite the team's early on-field struggles, the city proudly embraced their "lovable losers" due to Stengel's witty charm and dynamic personality. Stengel led the Mets to a 40-120 record in 1962 and then had an 11-game improvement, going 51-111 the following year. The Mets were 31-65 when Stengel fractured his hip on July 24, 1965 ending his managerial career. Stengel continued to serve in the Mets front office as a scout, public speaker and Vice President. He was still a member of the Mets front office when he passed away due to cancer on September 29, 1975 at age 85. Stengel was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

Gil Hodges' #14 was retired on June 9, 1973 during the Old Timers Day ceremony at Shea. Hodges played for the Mets from 1962-1963 and hit the club's very first home run on April 11, 1962 in the team's first game at St. Louis. He was named the club's third manager on October 11, 1967. Just two years later, after never posting a winning season, Hodges guided the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Championship after beating the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series and then topping the heavily favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the World Series. Hodges was named the Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press following the season. Hodges guided the Mets from 1968-1971, compiling 339 victories. He died from a heart attack on April 2, 1972 shocking and saddening the organization and baseball community. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

Tom Seaver's #41 is the only player number in franchise history to be retired. The ceremony took place in a special tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988. Seaver won three Cy Young Awards and was a nine-time All-Star with the Mets. The Franchise won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. He earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967. Seaver was 25-7 in 1969 to help the Mets capture the World Series. He ranks first in team history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), strikeouts (2,541), and shutouts (44) after pitching with New York from 1967-1977 and returning for one final year in 1983. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992 with the highest percentage (98.84) in Hall of Fame history. Seaver was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

On April 15, 1997 in a historic ceremony at Shea Stadium, acting commissioner Bud Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 throughout Major League Baseball. "The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig during the ceremony as he stood side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring #42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

On April 8, 2008, in the final home opener in Shea Stadium's history, the Mets honored William A. Shea, the man for whom their previous ballpark was named after, by placing the name "Shea" alongside the retired numbers. Thirty member of the Shea family spanning three generations took part in the celebration. Shea was an attorney and the driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York City after the departure of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957. He spearheaded New York City Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League Baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. Shea was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983. He died at age 84 on October 2, 1991.

Home Uniform

1962

Home Uniform: The colors chosen were "Dodgers Blue" and "Giants Orange," and the NY monogram on the cap was a resurrection of the Giants' logo. The jersey was white with blue pinstripes and "Mets" in script across the chest on an upward slant, which was based on the Brooklyn Dodgers uniform. Road Uniform: The words "New York" in all capital letters with orange piping were used. The home pinstripe base was replaced by a solid gray color. The Mets skyline logo appeared on the left sleeve, and the same royal blue cap was used for both home and road uniforms.

1964-1965

During the team's first two seasons at Shea Stadium, a patch commemorating the city's hosting of the World's Fair replaced the Mets skyline logo on the sleeve of the home and road jersey. This was a relatively new innovation in baseball uniforms across the country and in New York. Only the Brooklyn Dodgers during the 1938 season had used a patch unrelated to the team's history, also to promote the upcoming World's Fair in 1939. The patch featured the Unisphere, which is still synonymous with Queens to this day.

1969

A patch commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys, again replacing the skyline logo. The patch features the Major League Baseball logo and the wording 100th Anniversary.

1972

The Mets wear a black armband on the left sleeve of both the home and road uniforms in memory of Mets manager Gil Hodges, who passed away prior to the start of the1972 campaign.

1974

Both the home and road uniforms are changed from flannel uniforms with double-knit lettering to tackle twill. In addition, "zig-zag" pinstripes are featured on the home uniform. "New York" on the front of the road jersey is replaced by "Mets."

1976

The Mets once again wear black armbands commemorating the passing of two of the primary figures at the time of the club's inception – owner/president Joan Payson and manager Casey Stengel-both of whom passed away following the 1975 season. In addition, a patch commemorating the bicentennial of the United States of America is worn on the right sleeve. For selected games during the season the team also wears special striped hat as part of the celebration surrounding America's bicentennial.

1978

The white jersey changes to a pullover with a two-button, crew-neck style collar. Two blue stripes and one orange stripe, equal in width, are added to the cuff of both the left and right sleeve, as well as around the collar. In addition, orange and blue striping is added down the leg of the road pants.

1979

Prior to the start of the season, the National League passed a rule requiring all teams to wear names on the backs of their road uniforms. Although not required by the League offices, the Mets also add names to the back of their home uniforms.

1982

The Mets add an alternate blue road jersey for the '82 campaign. The royal blue pullover jersey features thick orange and blue racing stripes with "Mets" across the chest.

1983

The pullover white pinstriped jersey with thick striping from the neck all the way down to the socks is unveiled. In addition, the skyline logo is removed from the jersey. The Mets road jersey also changed to the pullover variety with "Mets" in script across the chest of the gray jersey with the thick stripes down the side.

1986
The team wears a special 25th Anniversary patch commemorating the franchise's founding year of 1962.

1987
The only Mets uniform to last but a single year. The 1987 road uniform marked the first appearance of the words "New York" written in script across the chest.

1988
"New York" on the front of the road jersey is changed to block lettering in an arch across the chest. A white outline is added to the outline of all letters and numbers as well as to the racing stripe down the side of the uniform.

1991
Buttons return to the uniform. The home jersey still features the script "Mets" and the road jersey keeps the block-lettered "New York".

1992
A special "S" patch is added to the sleeve of both the home and road jerseys in tribute to the late William A. Shea, who was instrumental in the birth of the franchise.

1993
The skyline logo returns to the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys while the thick racing stripes are removed from both uniforms entirely. A new style script is used for the "Mets" lettering across the chest of the home uniform. The lettering is similar to the script "Mets" used from the team's inception, with an added tail that underlines the entire word. In addition, the "zig-zag" pinstripes that had been featured on the home uniform since 1972, is changed to a straight pinstripe. The road jersey features a script lettering "New York" that also is underlined. Finally all hats worn by teams across Major League Baseball feature the MLB logo, centered on the back of the cap.

1994
A patch commemorating the 125th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the right sleeve of both the home and road uniforms. The skyline logo on the left sleeve is also replaced for this season with a special patch commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Miracle Mets.

1995
The skyline logo returns to the sleeve of both the home and road uniforms, while the underlining of the "Mets" and "New York" on both versions of the jerseys is removed in favor of the more classic lettering. The button atop the blue Mets cap is changed from royal blue to orange.

1996
Both the home and road jerseys are embroidered with a special logo which features a home plate design and inscription "J.M., N.L. Umpire, 10" in memory of John McSherry, an umpire who died during a game on Opening Day of the 1996 season.

1997
An alternate home "snow white" uniform is added. The jersey is very similar to the traditional home uniform, without the pinstripes. The team also adds an alternate white cap with a blue brim and an interlocking orange NY. Finally, all teams across Major League Baseball feature a special 50th Anniversary patch commemorating Jackie Robinson's breaking baseball's color barrier.

The alternate white cap is scrapped in favor of a new black cap with royal blue trim and an inter-locking NY in royal blue. The team also adds a second alternate jersey, which is worn both at home as well as on the road. The black uniform, with "Mets" across the chest on an upward slant, features blue letters and numbers with a white and orange drop shadow.

A second alternate cap is added. The all-black cap features an interlocking NY in royal blue with white and orange drop shadow. In addition, player names are removed from all three jerseys worn at home – white pinstripes, "snow white," and black alternate. An alternate black road jersey is added as well, similar to the alternate black home jersey, but featuring "New York" across the chest. Additionally, a slight change is made in the Mets skyline logo, as the small interlocking NY is removed. This is the first change to the skyline logo since the team's inception in 1962.

2000

All teams add the Major League Baseball logo to the back of the home, road and alternate jerseys. The team also opens the season in Tokyo, Japan and feature a special patch commemorating the first games played outside North America. Player names return to the back of all versions of the home jersey after a one-year hiatus. Finally, the Mets wear a patch with the official logo of the 2000 World Series during that years' Fall Classic.

2001

The team wears a special patch in memory of the passing of Mets legend Tommie Agee, who died of a heart attack prior to the season and prospect Brian Cole, who was killed in an automobile accident. The patch featured 20 and 60, the numbers worn by Agee and Cole, and was worn for the Mets home opener on April 10, 2001. Later in the season, in response the attacks on September 11th, the Mets wear caps honoring the NYPD, FDNY, Port Authority, Emergency Medical Services, and numerous other city services that were affected by the terrorist attacks. An American flag is also added to the back of all jerseys league wide, and American flags are also added to the side of all caps.

2002

The Mets honor the franchise's 40th Anniversary with a commemorative patch on the right sleeve of the home jerseys, below which is stitched "9-11-01" in remembrance of the September 11th attacks.

2004

The team celebrates Shea Stadium's 40th birthday with a patch on the right sleeve of the home jersey. The logo is split between blue and orange and features the iconic pitcher and batter neons which adorned Shea Stadium's exterior. All jerseys also feature an embroidered "Ya Gotta Believe-Tug" patch, in memory of former Mets reliever Tug McGraw. The team also honors the passing of the voice of the Mets, as "Bob Murphy" is embroidered above the Mets logo on the left sleeve in memory of the Hall of Fame broadcaster.

2008

In recognition of the team's final season at Shea Stadium, the Mets wear a patch commemorating their time in the ballpark which opened in 1964. The logo is adorned to the right sleeve and features a split image of the stadium's original façade from 1964 coupled with a more modern version. The imagery is then surrounded by the wording "Shea Stadium 1964-2008."

Alternate Home Uniform (2010)

The Mets open Citi Field with a patch commemorating their first year in their new world-class home. The logo is placed on the right sleeve of the Mets home jersey and resembles the Citi Field logo, but features the wording "Inaugural Season 2009."

2010

The Mets introduce a new pinstripe jersey that combines elements of both new and old Mets uniforms. The natural color and pinstripes were staples of the Mets uniform when the team debuted in 1962, and were complemented by a more modern day script "Mets" across the chest.

Jane Jarvis

Jane Jarvis, whose organ playing was a fixture a Shea Stadium for 16 years (1964-1979), passed away January 25, 2010 at the age of 94.

Jarvis, played for the Braves at County Stadium in Milwaukee, before coming to the Mets.

"Jane Jarvis was an accomplished pianist, stadium organize and jazz musician. Her talents enriched Shea Stadium and provided the soundtrack to Mets games for 16 years," said Mets Chief Operating Officer Jeff Wilpon.

"I can remember, note for note, the way she played 'Meet the Mets'," said Ron Swoboda, a rightfielder on the 1969 Miracle Mets. "She played some pretty good jazz chops, but she never overplayed the organ. She made me into a jazz buff. She was some special lady."

Polo Grounds

The Mets first game at the Polo Games, April 13, 1962.

For the first two years of their existence, the Mets played their home games at the historic Polo Grounds while waiting for the finish of the construction of Shea Stadium.

The stadium where the Mets won 56 games during the 1962 and 1963 seasons actually was the fourth venue to carry the name the "Polo Grounds." The first structure, located between 110th and 112th Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues in upper Manhattan, opened its doors in 1876 as a home to polo matches. In 1880, the New York Metropolitans leased the grounds for baseball with the New York Giants following suit three years later.

The second Polo Grounds, sporting a 15,000-seat wooden grandstand, was located on 155th Street and Eighth Avenue with the Giants as the main tenants. Although polo was not played there, the team brought the name of its former home. It was here that the famous quirky dimensions—475 feet to centerfield and only 258 feet out to right—were first unveiled. After a fire destroyed the stadium in 1911, it was rebuilt later that year with a capacity of 34,000.

In 1913, the Yankees joined the Giants as tenants, but left after an attendance dispute in 1922. Finally, in 1924, the fourth remodeling of the Polo Grounds was finished, complete with seating for 55,987. It was this incarnation that the Mets began calling home in 1962.

The Giants left New York and the Polo Grounds in 1957, leaving the stadium with only the memories of some of the most famous moments in baseball history, such as Bobby Thomson's game-winning "Shot Heard 'Round the World" to clinch the 1951 pennant, and Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in the 1954 World Series. Without a Major League Baseball team as a regular tenant, the stadium deteriorated to the point where the Mets needed to spend $300,000 to refurbish the ballpark before moving in to start the 1962 season.

With a fresh coat of paint, a new scoreboard, better lighting, more dining options for fans and a complete overhaul of the outfield and infield grass, the Mets played their first home game in the Polo Grounds on April 13, 1962 and lost 4-3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. New York played 160 more games at their temporary home over the next two seasons and left for good following a 5-1 loss to Philadelphia Phillies on September 18, 1963.

The aging stadium was finally demolished over a period of four months in 1964. A housing development now occupies the famous site.

Shea Stadium

In 1964, the Mets moved from Manhattan to Queens and their brand-new home, William A. Shea Municipal Stadium. Located on 126th Street and Roosevelt Avenue, Shea would welcome more than 94 million fans and some of the most famous moments in Mets history during its 45 years.

The Mets first game at Shea Stadium, April 17, 1964.

The stadium originally was to be called "Flushing Meadows Stadium." But in 1962, behind a movement led by department store magnate Bernard Gimbel, the Flushing Meadows Stadium label was dropped in favor of a name that honored the man most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York, prominent attorney Bill Shea. Shea Stadium was born.

Architect John Waterbury drew up the plans for the stadium and the ceremonial groundbreaking took place on October 28, 1961. The designs called for the city to contribute $24.5 million to construct the ballpark, with the Mets to chip in another $6.5 million for office space, restaurants and other amenities.

The 55,300-seat stadium was completed and Shea opened to 48,736 fans on April 17, 1964. But in a scene reminiscent of Opening Day at the Polo Grounds two years earlier, the Pirates again beat the Mets, 4-3.

In their first season at Shea, the Mets drew 1,732,597 fans and hosted the All-Star Game before baseball handed off the reigns to football and the New York Jets for the winter. Football would be a permanent winter staple in Queens until 1983, when the Jets left for New Jersey.

Shea was designed to be a multi-purpose complex—it was the first major stadium in the United States to have two movable field box sections—and as such held a variety of events. The Beatles gave the first-ever concert at Shea Stadium on August 15, 1965, in front of more than 55,000 fainting, crying and screaming fans. It was, and remains to this day, the most historic concert ever, as it was the first time in history that a sports stadium was used for a rock concert. The groundbreaking Beatles concert at Shea set new attendance records at the time; it was the first large-scale, outdoor concert that demonstrated such events could be hugely successful and profitable.

Other unforgettable Shea moments include the historic papal Mass celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979, plus concerts staged by music legends including Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix and Bruce Springsteen. The stadium also played host to a wide variety of sporting events, such as soccer, boxing and wrestling matches and college football, along with the normal schedule of baseball and NFL football games.

Pope John Paul II address the crowd at Shea Stadium in 1979.

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York sports world. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called the stadium home, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. Both the Yankees and Giants needed a temporary home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations.

The Mets final game at Shea Stadium, with Citi Field in the background, September 28, 2008.

Throughout the years, Shea was the site for some of the most memorable moments in Mets history: Cleon Jones catching the clinching out of the 1969 World Series, the amazing comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series, and President Bill Clinton joining Jackie Robinson's widow, Rachel, to retire the Hall of Famers uniform number 42 on April 15, 1997. Shea finally closed its doors on September 28, 2008 following the Mets' 4-2 loss to the Florida Marlins.

The demolition of Shea took several months, with the final piece coming down on February 18, 2009 at 11:22 A.M. Citi Field's Parking Lot D covers the grounds where Shea once stood, with markers commemorating the original locations of the stadium's home plate, bases and pitching mound.

Citi Field Scoreboards

Citi Field features a unique, integrated, state-of-the-art video scoring and display system developed specifically for the ballpark. Over 13,000 square feet of digital display technology provides fans with high definition video, real-time statistics and much more.

Working closely with the Mets, the integrated system at Citi Field was designed and manufactured in the USA by Daktronics. Designed with fans in mind, it incorporates the latest LED display and control technologies to provide an even greater game-day experience. Daktronics is recognized as the world's leading LED video provider and has scoring/video systems installed at 26 MLB ballparks.

The center field display is 51 feet high by 70 feet wide, and provides 1,200 lines of resolution with full color LED lines of pixels on 12 mm (.47") spacing. No other outdoor venue's primary video board has tighter resolution.

The second giant HD display is located in right field, providing line ups, scores and game in progress information and statistics in addition to high definition video and graphics. A third high definition video display in the right field corner provides scoreboard features, game action and replays to fans seated in left and center field. Both HD displays utilize cutting edge Daktronics HDX technology, providing incredible viewing angels (nearly 180 degrees horizontal viewing), improved contrast for more vibrant colors, increased brightness (7,500 nits), world –class image processing and a fast refresh rate for enhanced detail and smooth motion.

Citi Field is also home to one of the longest ribbon boards in baseball. Surrounding the seating bowl on the Promenade level fascia, the board is nearly 850 feet in length. The ribbon board provides a variety of scoring information, as well as option captioning of the PA Audio system - a helpful amenity for the hearing-impaired.

One of MLB's largest out-of-town scoreboards graces the front of the roof canopy in left-center field, keeping fans informed with continuous display of score, inning, pitchers, base runners and outs of all the day's MLB games around both leagues.

Seven additional LED displays are located outside the seating bowl. Video and scoring displays are mounted on the rear of the main center field scoreboard, providing video and game information to fans visiting the "Taste of the City" and "2KSports Fan Fest" areas beyond center field. An additional LED video display is located on Mr. Met's Kiddie Field in the Fan Fest area, a scale replica of the ballpark's major league playing field, where kids can see themselves as they take a few swings or shag flies.

An exterior marquee display on the North side of the building greets arriving fans, and provides information to those passing by. Citi Field's main entrance, the beautiful Jackie Robinson rotunda, is served by two 9 foot by 16 foot LED video displays, providing multi-media imagery of the great Jackie Robinson as well as game day information and video. An additional HD video screen carries all of the game action for fans visiting the shops and eateries on the Promenade plaza behind home plate.

The video and scoring displays at Citi Field are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.

- The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. The Mets lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL.
- San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy.
- Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single
- The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale.
- The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead.
- The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat.
- The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch.
- The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard.
- Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.
- Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single in the third off the Angels' Dean Chance.

Citi Field

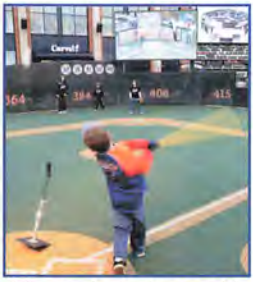
Citi Field, the home of the Mets that opened on April 13, 2009, represents a new era for National League baseball in New York. The 41,800-seat ballpark brings fans closer to the action for a more intimate experience, offers unprecedented amenities and comfort throughout its 1.3 million square feet, and sets a new standard in dining at sports and entertainment venues.

HIGHLIGHTS

Citi Field's design produces a superior experience for fans throughout the ballpark, offering an intimate atmosphere with seating closer to the action and angled toward the infield. Citi Field features some of the widest, unobstructed concourses of any sports and entertainment facility. Concession stands and restrooms are located within the facility's exterior walls, allowing fans uninterrupted views of the field. Wider seats provide enhanced comfort throughout the ballpark with more space between rows providing additional legroom.

Fans throughout Citi Field can choose from wide-ranging menus at multiple sit-down, climate-controlled restaurants, bars, clubs, and lounges including the Delta Sky360 Club and Caesars Club behind home plate, and Acela Club, the multi-tiered, glass-enclosed 350-seat restaurant overlooking leftfield.

Fans enjoy the Taste of the City behind the scoreboard in centerfield.



Kids swing for the fences on Mr. Met's Kiddie Field at 2K Sports FanFest.

The Mets and ARAMARK's unique partnerships with Danny Meyer's Union Square Hospitality Group, Drew Nieporent's Myriad Restaurant Group, and Dave Pasternack of Esca have redefined the dining experience to make Citi Field a culinary destination. Taste of the City on the Field Level in the outfield showcases the very best from these world-renowned restaurateurs at Shake Shack, Blue Smoke, El Verano Taqueria, Box Frites and Catch of the Day. The World's Fare Market reflects the diversity of Queens with Italian, Japanese, Chinese and Korean cuisine from local dining institutions.

Citi Field's 2K Sports FanFest behind the centerfield scoreboard features activities for the whole family including: Mr. Met's Kiddie Field, a miniature replica of Citi Field complete with its own video board, the Hershey Park dunk tank, batting cages and a 2K Sports video game kiosk.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Citi Field's design is inspired by the Mets' National League heritage. The brick, limestone, granite and cast stone throughout the ballpark closely resembles the masonry used at Ebbets Field, the legendary home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The dark green seats and soot-colored exposed steel recall the Mets' first home, the historic Polo Grounds and former home of the New York Giants. A structural steel "bridge" motif throughout Citi Field reinforces the Mets' connection to New York's five boroughs while symbolically linking the team's beloved tradition to its future. The Mets will dedicate the bridge in right-centerfield as Shea Bridge after William A. Shea, extending the legacy of the man who was the driving force behind bringing National League baseball back to New York and for whom Shea Stadium was named.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

The iconic main entry to Citi Field honors Jackie Robinson, the great American trailblazer who became the first African-American player to break Major League Baseball's color barrier with the Dodgers in 1947. Evoking the classic design of Ebbets Field, the Rotunda recognizes and perpetuates the humanitarian ideals of one of our country's civil rights pioneers.

Engraved into the Rotunda's 160-foot diameter floor and etched into its 70-foot archways are words and larger-than-life images that defined Jackie's "nine values:" Courage, Excellence, Persistence, Justice, Teamwork, Commitment, Citizenship, Determination, and Integrity. The Rotunda features an eight-foot sculpture of Jackie's number 42, which was retired in perpetuity throughout Major League Baseball in 1997.

The Mets, Citi and Jackie's wife Rachel were joined by Major League Baseball President & Chief Operating Officer Bob DuPuy, New York State Governor David A. Paterson, Senior U.S. Senator from the State of New York Chuck Schumer and other government officials in dedicating the Rotunda on Jackie Robinson Day, April 15, 2009.

METS HISTORY AT CITI FIELD

In 2010, the Mets Hall of Fame & Museum opened next to the Jackie Robinson Rotunda, serving to promote an understanding and appreciation of club history and honor those individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the franchise. Plaques recognizing the 25 members of the Mets Hall of Fame will be displayed including those from the class of 2010: General Manager Frank Cashen, pitcher Dwight Gooden, Manager Davey Johnson, and outfielder Darryl Strawberry, who will be inducted during a pre-game, on-field ceremony August 1. The museum will chronicle the history of the franchise, from its origins and early history, the World Championship seasons in 1969 and 1986, to present day. Memorable Mets players and moments will be recognized with interactive and multi-media displays throughout the 3,765 square foot structure.

The Mets renamed Citi Field's VIP entrances after individuals who made an indelible mark on the club and whose numbers have been retired. First Base VIP is named after Gil Hodges to honor the manager who led the Mets to their first World Championship in 1969. Third Base VIP recognizes Tom Seaver, the Hall of Fame pitcher and Mets leader in wins, earned run average and strikeouts. Left Field VIP is named after Casey Stengel, the first manager in Mets history.

Citi Field Fanwalk Bricks outside the Rotunda.

Photographic imagery of famous Mets and historic moments are displayed inside Citi Field along the concourses and outside the ballpark with banners on Mets plaza, in the parking lots and encasing the ramp in leftfield. More than 20,000 bricks outside the Jackie Robinson Rotunda on the Citi Field Fanwalk pay tribute to the Mets, their fans and the Amazin' Moments in team history.

THE METS AND CITI

On November 13, 2006, the Mets and Citi signed a 20-year landmark partnership that includes the naming rights for Citi Field and working together on a series community outreach initiatives. The Mets and Citi launched Citi Field Kids on Jackie Robinson Day, April 15, 2009, and more than 1,200 New York City students from United Neighborhood Houses had the opportunity for a unique experience at Citi Field during its inaugural season. Students toured the Jackie Robinson Rotunda and learned about his nine values, heard inspiring words from guest speakers including Mets General Manager Omar Minaya, former Mets Darryl Strawberry and John Franco, and Jackie Robinson's daughter Sharon.

The Mets and Citi also partnered with Habitat for Humanity to build affordable housing for New Yorkers in the "2009 Miracle Build" at Citi Field. Members of the 1969 World Champion Mets including pitchers Tom Seaver and Jerry Koosman also helped complete a four-story complex in Brooklyn, Habitat's largest building in the United States.

SIGNATURE PARTNERS

In addition to Citi, a select roster of blue-chip brands have signed exclusive multi-year marketing and promotional agreements as Signature Partners with the Mets at Citi Field, including Anheuser-Busch, Delta Air Lines, GEICO, Harrah's Entertainment, Pepsi, Verizon and Xerox.

CITI FIELD AND THE ENVIRONMENT

In the design and construction of Citi Field, the Mets sought to exceed high environmental standards and reduce the ballpark's carbon footprint with a wide range of sustainable environmental initiatives.

During construction, the Mets used recycled concrete to support cranes and fueled construction vehicles with ultra low-sulfur diesel. The concrete poured for the ballpark's foundation consists of ash and residue materials from coal-burning power plants. Citi Field's west parking lot was built with approximately 10,000 yards of concrete salvaged and recycled from Shea Stadium's demolition.

Citi Field's building management system monitors and automatically controls all aspects of energy operation from temperatures to lights to minimize energy consumption. The ballpark's 414 hands-free faucets, 635 automated toilet flush-valves, and 270 waterless urinals save more than four million gallons of water per year. A 11,000 square foot green roof atop the administration building in rightfield, white PVC roofs throughout the ballpark, high mast parking lot light fixtures, permeable pavers, and an underground well used to irrigate the playing field are other ways the Mets are working to protect the environment.

DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

The $800 million Citi Field project was developed by Queens Ballpark Company, L.L.C. and designed by the internationally renowned architects of Populous. Hunt-Bovis, a joint venture of Hunt Construction Group and Bovis Lend Lease, provided construction management. Construction of Citi Field created more than 6,000 temporary full-time equivalent jobs, while ongoing operations at Citi Field have resulted in approximately 1,000 new jobs.

Sterling Equities, the Mets' ownership group, has expertise and experience in the development and management of premium New York City properties, as well as new minor league ballparks in Coney Island and Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Pitchers Grand Slams

In the entire history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

Two Stadium Doubleheaders

The Mets and Yankees have previously met in a day-night, home-road doubleheader three times. The Mets and Yankees first historic doubleheader took place on July 8, 2000. Both New York teams played a regularly scheduled day game at Shea Stadium and then a played a night game at Yankee Stadium which was a rescheduled contest from a rainout on June 11th. The Yankees won both games by the same 4-2 score. According the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first day-night doubleheader taking place in different venues since September 7, 1903. On that day, the New York Giants played two games against the Brooklyn Superbas (later known as the Dodgers). The first game was played in the morning at Brooklyn's Washington Park with John McGraw's Giants winning, 6-4. The second game was an afternoon contest at the Polo Grounds with Brooklyn winning, 3-0. The other day-night, Shea-Yankee Stadium doubleheaders were on June 28, 2003 and June 27, 2008. In 2003, the day game took place at Yankee Stadium with the Yankees winning, 7-1. The night cap was at Shea and the Yankees prevailed, 9-8. In 2008, the final year of both Shea Stadium and Yankee Stadium, the Mets and Yankees played a day-night, cross-borough doubleheader. The Mets won the day game at Yankee Stadium, 15-6, and the Yankees took the night cap, 9-0, at Shea.

ATLANTA BRAVES

NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series

3-0

In the club's first ever trip to the postseason, the Mets sweep the best-of-five series vs. Atlanta, three games to none.

In Game One, trailing, 5-4, in the top of the eighth, New York rallied for five runs and a 9-5 win. Tom Seaver struggled, allowing five runs in 7.0 innings, but earned the victory.

In Game Two, two-run home runs by Tommie Agee, Ken Boswell and Cleon Jones lifted the Mets to an 11-6 win.

In front of 53,195 fans at Shea, New York advanced to the World Series with a 7-4 victory in Game Three. The lead changed hands three times before Wayne Garrett's two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth put the Mets ahead, 5-4. Nolan Ryan hurled 4.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and complete the sweep.

Boswell hit .333 with two home runs and five RBI, while Agee batted .357 with two home runs and four RBI. Hank Aaron cracked a home run in each game and drove in seven runs for the Braves.

Jerry Koosman greets Ron Swoboda.

1969 World Series

BALTIMORE ORIOLES vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-1

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches, ever just three innings apart.

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arms of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the base-path.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

1973 League Championship Series

CINCINNATI REDS vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 3-2

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Bud Harrelson and Pete Rose start a bench-clearing brawl in Game Three of the 1973 NLCS.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

1973 World Series

OAKLAND ATHLETICS
vs.
NEW YORK METS

Mets Lost Series
4-3

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a seven-game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning. New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, which would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors.

The great Willie Mays can not believe that Buddy Harrelson was called out at home in the 10th inning of Game Two of the 1973 World Series vs. Oakland... New York eventually won that contest, 10-7, in 12 innings on a RBI single by Mays.

The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shut out the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

1986 League Championship Series

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Lenny Dykstra rounds the bases after hitting the game winning home run in Game Three of the NLCS to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10.0 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

BOSTON RED SOX vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-3

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through 7.0 innings as New York won, 7-1.

Ray Knight races home with the winning run in New York's dramatic 7-6, 10th inning comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's 7.0 shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete-game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

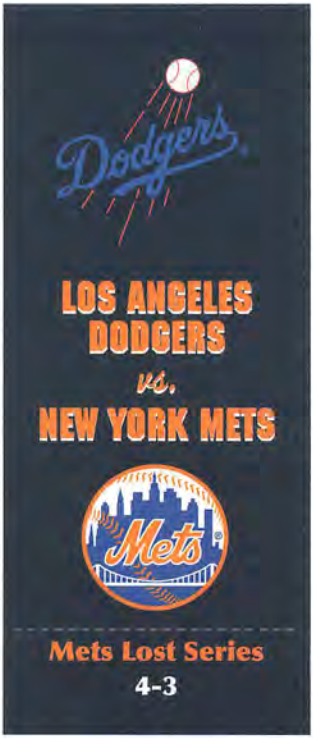
1988 League Championship Series



Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

Darryl Strawberry led the National League with 39 home runs and drove in 101 runs in 1988.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 Game Six win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

1999 Division Series

vs.
NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series
3-1

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first postseason victory.

Todd Pratt is greeted at home plate after his 10th inning, walk-off, series-ending home run in Game Four vs. Arizona in the 1999 National League Division Series...Pratt's solo blast to center just eluded D-Backs centerfielder Steve Finley to give the Mets a 4-3 win.

1999 League Championship Series

ATLANTA BRAVES vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Lost Series 4-2

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Robin Ventura waves to the Shea faithful after his "grand slam single" won Game Five of the 1999 NLCS.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning, the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

2000 Division Series

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the postseason in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby Jones pitches a one-hitter in the Division Series to send the Mets to the NLCS against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first postseason complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

2000 League Championship Series

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

vs.

NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-1

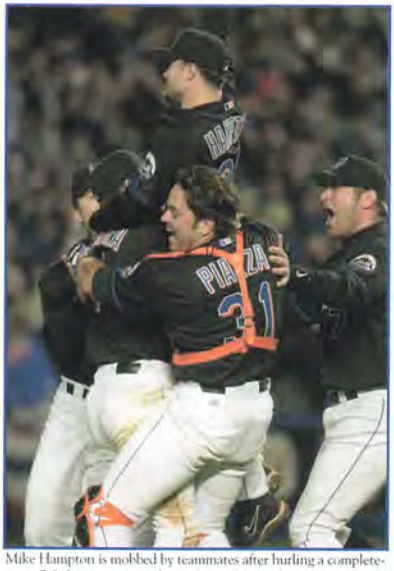
New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game One, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.



Mike Hampton is mobbed by teammates after hurling a complete-game 7-0 shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals in Game Five of the 2000 National League Championship Series to send the Mets to their first World Series since 1986.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career postseason RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

2000 World Series

NEW YORK YANKEES vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Lost Series 4-1

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets faced the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and an RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced an RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third.

Longtime Met John Franco (L) and Bobby Jones (R) take a victory lap at Shea after clinching the 2000 National League Championship Series.

The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.

The Mets and Yankees met in the first Subway Series since 1956. Here the two teams line-up for the national anthem before Game Three of the 2000 World Series.

New York swept the Dodgers, three games to none, to advance to the NLCS. The Mets won Game One, 6-5, as Carlos Delgado went 4-5 with two RBI and David Wright chipped in three RBI. Delgado became the fifth player in major league history to have four or more hits with at least one home run in his first career postseason game. Carlos also tied the team record with four hits in a playoff game. In the second inning, Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Paul Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score. Tom Glavine posted his 13th career postseason victory in New York's 4-1 win over the Dodgers in Game Two.

Glavine fired 6.0 shutout innings. Billy Wagner notched his second save of the series with a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Endy Chavez collected two hits and Jose Reyes drove in two runs.

The Mets completed the sweep with a 9-5 triumph at Los Angeles. The Mets grabbed a 3-0 first inning lead, but the Dodgers regained a 5-4 lead after five innings. New York retook the lead with consecutive RBI singles by Reyes, Lo Duca and Carlos Beltran in the sixth inning. Green had three hits and two RBI. He also caught the final out (Ramon Martinez) of the series.

In a series-changing play at the plate, Paul Lo Duca celebrates after tagging out two Dodgers on the same play in the second inning of Game One of the 2006 NLDS. Los Angeles' Russell Martin singled to the right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score.
